

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE & NEW EARTH INSTITUTE

CONSCIOUSNESS-CENTERED GRADUATE SCHOOL FOR COUNSELING AND ART THERAPY

PRESENTS

CMH 5055 THE FOUNDATIONS OF JUNGIAN SANDPLAY THERAPY

Lorraine Freedle, Ph.D., ABPdN, CST-T

$365/16 CECs

Friday, October 23, 5–8pm (MST); Saturday & Sunday, October 24 & 25, 10am–6pm (MST)

Live Interactive Webinar-Zoom Synchronous

Join us to learn the theoretical foundations, practical applications, and neuropsychological underpinnings of Jungian sandplay therapy with children and adults. Through experiential activities, videos and compelling case studies, students will integrate concepts and connect to the work on a deep level. Students who complete this course earn training hours toward credentialing as a sandplay therapist. (20 contact hours toward the Children's Mental Health Certificate.)

Lorraine Freedle, Ph.D., ABPdN, CST-T, is a pediatric neuropsychologist, international sandplay teacher (STA-ISST), and Clinical Director of Pacific Quest, an integrated outdoor behavioral health program. Her private practice is Black Sand Neuropsychological Services in Hilo, Hawaii. Dr. Freedle currently serves as President of the Sandplay Therapists of America and Research Editor for the Journal of Sandplay Therapy.

To register, contact registrar@swc.edu or Ph. 505-467-6809.

For more information on our five different Certificate Programs, visit www.swc.edu

